

Comenius, 2013. 09.28-09. 05. Romania

We arrived to Turda at half past 5. The host families came to the Hotel at about 6 o'clock. My host, Krisztina lives in Comesti(Komjászeg). It's a small village next to Turda. I was happy when I met Krisztina. She was kind, but a little bit quiet.

The first day, we went to Cluj Napoca, the „capital of Transylvania”. It is so huge. We visited an ortodox, a catholic and a calvinist church. I think, they were very beautiful. Cluj Napoca is a nice town, with hungarian places. We had dinner at our host families.

Our second day was the greatest of all. We met the turkish and the romanian students. They were very friendly. My best friends were from Turkey. We had lunch at a restaurant in Turda, then we went to the Salt Mine. I enjoyed it so much, because it was interesting. The Salt Mine was very deep, and I was afraid a little bit, but it was a good experience. My two friends and I boated into the Salt Mine. After the visiting, we came back to the school. I met many students from the Jósika Miklós, and I talked with them. We cooked the dinner together. The dinner was very tasty. We ate stuffed cabbage, Gulas, and a traditional turkish food. We got a cake with the flag of the European Union. We danced till 11 o'clock. I enjoyed this day very much.

Our third day was rainy. The day began into the museum of Turda, then we went to the Gorge of Turda. Some people turned around to the Bus, because it was raining and it was cold, but I went to the Gorge. It has got some dangerous places, but the trip was exciting, and our guide, Zsolt was careful and helpful. It was raining, so we can't hike to the Székelykő.

In Galati, I had a wonderful time. My host, Milena was the best host ever. I loved her, because she was a little bit crazy, and I love the crazy people. On Thursday evening, we had a show. We were presenting our fashionable clothes with traditional motifs on them from our country. My favourite show was the romanian presentation. They danced to a great music, and their clothes were wonderful. After the show, we had a birthday party on a club, because it was Kübra's birthday.

The last day was a little bit sad. We visited the Danube Delta. In the evening, we went to bowling. It was our last party together. After that, we had to say goodbye. I was so sad and I cried.

On Saturday, we left Galati at 5 o'clock in the morning.
